

GAC Egypt Port Call Services

Prompt, personalised support nationwide

Our business is built around supporting yours. We have the muscle and resources to take care of your needs from agency services to specialist support including bunker fuels, ship spares, crew changes, provisions and cash-to-master delivery.

Delivering your strategy.

GAC Egypt is a trusted provider of an integrated range of logistics and shipping services, including specialised expert assistance for vessels transiting the Suez Canal.

Established in 1994, GAC Egypt is part of the GAC Group's global network of 300 offices, including eight in Egypt.

We are the leading agents for handling all types of cargo at all Egyptian ports.

Our head office is located in Cairo with branches in Alexandria, Alexandria Port, Ain Sokhna, Damietta, Port Said, Suez, Safaga and Cairo airport. The Alexandria office is the coordinating office for all port calls.

Make the right move

Our strong relationships with the port authorities at all Egyptian Ports enable us to provide you with the professional specialist support you need for smooth port calls and transits.

From monitoring vessel ETA, pre-arrival information and required certification to boarding arrangements, berthing/sailing prospects and port call funds, trust us to take care of the details while you take care of business.
