

GAC South Africa Shipping and Logistics Services

Integrated services throughout South Africa

Your partner of choice to support your business in South Africa, and beyond.

Delivering your strategy.

More and more vessel owners and managers are choosing GAC South Africa as their port agent.

As one of Africa's fastest growing countries, with the continent's strongest economy, South Africa represents an important market for international and domestic business as well as a gateway to the rest of the continent.

Global network, local expertise

Established in 1998, GAC Shipping South Africa is your local partner of choice at the nation's ports and terminals, combining unsurpassed local know-how with the global reach and resources of the GAC Group.

Comprehensive coverage

From our head office in Cape Town and branches in Durban, Richards Bay, Saldanha Bay and Port Elizabeth, we provide a full range of ship agency services to vessels calling at all major ports in the country, as well as neighbouring Namibia and Mozambique.

Professional and experienced team

Our strong, experienced team of shipping professionals is fully conversant with a wide range of cargoes from iron ore and coal through to crude oil, agricultural produce and chemicals to vehicles, livestock, general cargo and containers.

Our Cape Town office specialises in providing a wide range of services to the offshore industry, including repairs, maintenance, crew changes and storage for FPSOs.

All our shipping operations are ISO 9001:2015 and TRACE certified, and we are a proud Level 1 B-BBEE contributor.

Strategically located shipping offices at key port areas

Established infrastructure, resources and services in all main South African centres

Cape Town

Situated on the main sea route around Africa, Cape Town is a world class sea port and a key location for repairs.

Durban

The port of Durban is the busiest port on the African continent, and South Africa's main general cargo and container port.

Richards Bay

The state-of-the-art high tech terminal infrastructure at Richards Bay is helping it achieve its goal of becoming South Africa's leading port.

Saldanha Bay

The export of iron ore and discharge / loading and storage of crude oil are two key activities in Saldanha Bay port.

Port Elizabeth

This multi-cargo port on the western perimeter of Algoa Bay has adequate rail and road links with parts of the country.

Walvis Bay (Namibia)

Ideally located to deliver expert shipping and breakbulk services and to mobilise large scale projects to West African oil fields.

Logistics solutions tailor-made for you

The combination of local expertise with the worldwide infrastructure and resources of the GAC Group enables us to offer a full range of logistics and supply chain solutions.

With offices and warehouses in Cape Town, Durban, Johannesburg, Pretoria and Port Elizabeth we serve international trade with a comprehensive suite of freight forwarding solutions for import and export cargoes entering South Africa through the country's sea and airports. That service package includes warehousing, transport broking, project management, administration, documentation preparation and risk management of products throughout the customs clearance process.

With a warehousing capacity of 15,000m² and access to additional warehouse space, we offer value-added packing, palletising, product labeling and specialised cargo handling for a broad range of local and international manufacturers, distributors and retailers. Sectors served range from energy, iron ore and coal through to timber, textiles, agricultural products and consumer goods.

Strong relationships with reliable carriers and suppliers enable us to deliver on our promise of time-definite deliveries wherever the destination.

All our operations are conducted with due vigilance and diligence to comply with measures to ensure the highest security standards for our customers.

We are part of the C-TPAT network and fully compliant with US Customs AMS regulations.
