Innovative and cost saving training for the maritime sector

GAC Training & Service Solutions (GTSS), is a partnership between GAC and the National Maritime College of Ireland. It combines the GAC Group's shipping experience and industry contacts with the training resources and expertise of the NMCI to deliver professional maritime training for both seafarers and shore-based personnel.

We provide selected training programmes at a variety of venues around the world, on-site at your own location, online or at the NMCI's USD 100 million state-of-the-art facility in Cork, Ireland.

Onsite facilities include:

- A suite of 17 bridge, engine room, fleetwork, VTS and Global Maritime Distress & Safety System simulators, including 360 degree imaging
- Fully operational full-sized ship engine and control rooms
- Welding and electrical workshops and mechanical engineering facilities
- Return To Scene (R2S) digital photographic imaging
- A survival pool
- Full fire fighting training facilities
