Handling the first floating storage regasification unit in Aqaba

Trusted agent for LNG carriers with an established track record

As Jordan stepped up its LNG imports in the summer of 2015, GAC was entrusted with handling the first gas carriers / FRSU to offload at Aqaba. As the agent of 'Golar Eskimo' and partner of choice in the country, GAC Jordan helped offload 144,218 cubic metres of LNG from Qatar and delivered a host of integrated services to the vessel including online connectivity and resupply, and also took care of all the vessel's manpower, equipment and marine needs.

GAC Jordan handled ship-to-ship transfers of LNG from the 'Castillo De Santisteban', the first LNG carrier to call at Aqaba, and the 'SCF Melampus', to the 'Golar Eskimo'. After loading, the LNG was regasified and pumped as natural gas to the National Electric Power Company's (NEPCO's) power stations. The GAC team also worked around-the-clock to coordinate the placement of six pneumatic fenders to create a protective buffer alongside the FSRU, the first operation of its kind to be conducted in the country.
